

IN COMMEMORATION OF “PROFESSIONALISM DAY”*

The Passaic County Bar Association presents a program on Ethics and Professionalism

Moderator:

Hon. Randal C. Chiocca, J.S.C.

Speakers:

Hon. John W. Bissell, Chief Judge, United States District Court, District of New Jersey (Ret.), Advisor, New Jersey Commission on Professionalism in the Law

Hon. Garry Rothstadt, J.A.D.

Hon. Raymond Reddin, J.S.C.

Michael Pasquale, Esq., Secretary and former Chairperson of the District XI Ethics Committee

Program Topics:

- Mentoring Programs – an opportunity to foster ethical and professional behavior.
- Professionalism and Good Sportsmanship, an excellent analogy.
- How to reconcile one’s ethical obligation to zealously represent a client’s interest with professionalism – bad behavior vs. unethical behavior.
- The “take no prisoners” approach to litigation is incompatible with civility and professional courtesy.
